If you're thinking about purchasing some sexy lingerie of any kind, no matter what your size, there are some important things to know before you head out to the mall. First of all, no matter how small your crotch is or whatever type of lingerie you are looking for, it's not going to be able to fit if you don't know your size. If you're trying on different types of underwear, such as thongs, boy shorts, bikini pantyhose, or even the ever popular crotchless panties, never try wearing a lingerie item that is too small for your body type. Yes, they will look good, but it will be extremely uncomfortable. On the other hand, wearing panties that are too big will most likely be a hindrance to the way that you could enjoy wearing the lingerie because it will either be too restrictive or too lax.

Before you purchase any type of sexy lingerie, be sure to try it on for size first.
